Visit to Bal Bhawan

- Date and venue

An excursion was organized for the students of grade III to Bal Bhawan on 21.01.17
- Agenda
 1. This trip was an endeavour to complement what is being taught in class as fresh insights could best be entreated with visuals from a real display.
 2. To support classroom learning with excursions.
 3. To enhance student's engagement in activities outside classroom.
 4. To develop confidence to be independent.
 5. The students, already familiar with some of what they saw and that motivated an enthusiasm to explore the rest.
 6. To develop inter personal skills among students.
- Participants

The students of grade III A, B, C with their Teacher In-charges.
- Highlights
 - The fascinating art and painting display at the entrance captivated the hearts of the children. With a lot in store for them, the little visitors were excited to explore the rest. The walls of the hallways depicted a panorama of Indian diversity, glimpses of our culture, assorted art and craft, rituals and traditions, amongst others.
 - The tiny tots were shown around the place and their anticipation reached its peak when they saw the activity rooms running classes of music, dance, art, book-binding, wood craft, clay- modeling, and puppetry, amongst others. At the Art and Craft Gallery, the children were amazed to see the craft work done, utilizing waste material.
 - The aquarium was another attraction where the sight of colorful fish in small aquaria was a treat to the eye for the children.
 - The Toy Train came along as the star attraction for the little ones! The students took a joy ride in the toy train, chugging through a tunnel, and over a bridge. With the whistle, smoke and chuff, the train took them around the premises of Bal Bhawan showcasing graffiti on the walls depicting the different states of India and their culture.
- Analysis
 - It was a great learning experience not only for the students but for the teachers as well.
