REPORT ON FAREWELL

Farewell is a time for the school to not only bid adieu to the twelfthies but also wish them best of luck for their future endeavours and it's also a time for the twelfthies to dotingly remember the anecdotes and experiences of their journey and progression in the school.

On 18th February 2017, the students of Grade-XII were given a farewell by the students of Grade-XI. The occasion was graced by Dr. Alam Ali, General Secretary, Surya Nagar Educational Society & Dr. Manjusha Joshi, Principal.

The students were ceremoniously welcomed with Tilak and Flowers. The programme started with Havan to seek blessings of the Almighty for good performance of our beloved students' forthcoming board exams and also as a mark of sanctification for them as they are about to venture out from the shielded environs of school life to undertake their journey of life.

Next was the prayer sung by the school choir under the guidance of Music team. Shiva dance was appreciated by each and every one present. The twelfthies who were the Guest of Honour thoroughly enjoyed themselves in the various programmes prepared for them - Bollywood and emotional mash ups. They whole heartedly participated in the Ramp Walk which also showcased their inherent talent. These prizes were presented by Dr. Alam Ali, General Secretary, Surya Nagar Educational Society & Dr. Manjusha Joshi, Principal. Jay Vardhan Sharma of XII S2 was crowned Mr.VBS & Nancy Tyagi was crowned Ms.VBS. Anmol Arya of XII-C2 & Kajal Sharma of XII-C1 were adjudged Mr. & Ms. Versatile respectively. Mr. Adorable and Ms. Adorable titles were bagged by Roshan Negi of XII-S2 & Ruby Kasana of XII-S1.

While addressing the students on the occasion, the General Secretary, Dr. Alam Ali urged them to put their heart & soul during the exams but must take proper care of their health. He also wished them success as they are on the verge of starting their journey of life and prayed for their success.

The Director of School Cabinet, Nancy Tyagi in her speech bid a tearful adieu to the school and teachers. She thanked the teachers for their constant motivation, encouragement and guidance in bringing out the best in all the students. She also said that she will never forget the moments spent in school as they are the essential part of her life and existence.

Vote of thanks was proposed by the Head Girl, GarimaBhatnagar. The programme ended with sumptuous lunch for all.

Thank You...
