PTM's Musical Extravaganza- A Report

Date & Venue :

The Performing Art wing of the School presented a musical extravaganza on 16th April 2016 in the premises of Vidya Bharati School during its inaugural PTM of the session 2016-17.

Demonstrator & Presenter :

Conducted by : Ms. Sonakshi Badhwar and Ms Neeta

Presented by : Ms Neeta, Ms Ashita, Mr Anil, School's Choir and Dance Troupe

Agenda :

- 1) To make the parents aware about how school is focusing on the holistic development of its scholars.
- 2) To engage the parents to witness the development of students in co-scholastic activities and also in nurturing the innate talent of students in making them at par with their contemporaries and being world ready .

Participants :

Ms. Neeta, Ms Ashita, Mr Anil, Anchors, School's Choir and Dance Troupe

Highlights :

The programme started with the auspicious ceremony of lighting of lamp. It was followed by a prayer to invoke Mother Saraswati, the Goddess of knowledge. The anchors started with a short poem emphasizing the importance of music in our day to day life. The first presentation, "I have a dream" by the talented choir of the school, mesmerized every one with its blend of cosmic tune and divine music. The next feat was an energetic dance performance by our little bloomers, whose synchronized and coordinated dance moves left everyone spellbound. Qawwali presented by the choir which was prepared by Ms. Neeta captivated one and all with its beautiful rendition.

The programme ended with the vote of thanks to the parents for their cooperation and support.

Analysis: The parents were appreciative of the efforts putting by the school in honing the talent of its students through co-scholastic activities. This event most certainly created positive vibes among parents and emphasized upon the co-scholastic activities under taken by the school in fostering holistic development of its students.
